

Coventry Cycle Speedway

Club Code of Conduct for Young People 2021

As a member of the Club you are expected to abide by the following code by:

- Arriving at training and competition in good time to prepare properly
- Wearing suitable kit (including a helmet) and clothing for all cycling activity sessions, as agreed with the coach
- Warming up and cooling down properly on all occasions
- Playing within the rules and respecting officials and all their decisions
- Being a good sport by applauding all good performances, whether they are made by your club or by the opposition
- Controlling your temper. Verbal abuse of officials and other riders, or deliberately distracting/provoking an opponent is not acceptable or permitted behaviour in any sport
- Working equalling hard for yourself and your club. Remember, your club's performance will benefit and so will you
- Respecting the rights, dignity and worth of all participants, regardless of their ability, gender, disability, cultural background and religion. Bullying or discrimination of any sort will not be tolerated
- Paying any fees promptly - all fees go towards club activities
- Abiding by the rule that junior members are not allowed to smoke on club premises or whilst representing the club at competitions
- Abiding by the rule that junior members are not allowed to consume alcohol or drugs of any kind on club's premises or whilst representing the club
- Treating all participants in cycling as you would like to be treated – not bullying or taking unfair advantage of another participant
- Cooperating with your coach, club mates and opponents. Remember, without them there would be no competition
- Thanking officials and opponents after competition

Finally, the posts you make on social media are out there in the world forever. Please be mindful of all of the above before posting anything connected to our club, its members and competing clubs. Thank you.

Julia Ingram
Club Secretary